DR. S. JOHN: (a) and (b) Yes.

(c) He has not made any special report nor expressed any formal opinion on the condition of any hospitals in the State.

(d) The question does not arise.

MR. S. SANKARANARAYANAN TAMPI: May I know whether he has given any informal expression of his view or whether he has made any report not of a special nature?

DR. S. JOHN: I do not understand the question.

MR. S. SANKARANARAYANAN TAMPI: With reference to answer to part (c), may I know whether he has given any informal expression of his view or whether he has made any report not of a special nature. The answer says 'He has not made any special report nor expressed any formal opinion on the condition of any hospitals in the State.'

DR. S. JOHN: He has given neither.

PRESIDENT: All that happened was that the Director General of Medical Services, an old friend of mine, came on a visit to this State. He visited the hospitals and sent a private letter to me marked 'Private and Confidential' and stated that in his opinion certain reforms were necessary. It is ultimately in pursuance of that suggestion that further steps are being taken for the improvement of certain hospitals in the State. It is a private letter between two friends and not a report.

Division Committees for advising improvements to public markets in the State.

154. MR. PULIYOOR T. P. VELAYUDHAN PILLAI: Will the Government be pleased to state:
